HISTORY & LITERATURE

18N64G1

The family data contained in this notebook was compiled by John Calvert when he was about sixty years of age and while he was living at the home of Marion Stephens, in Boone County, Kentucky. John was the son of James Calvert, one time Sheriff of the county. It is presumed that all events listed occurred in Boone County unless otherwise stated. In a few instances it was difficult to determine the exact spelling of some names. The notebook is the property of John Q. Stephens of Florence, Kentucky.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The first part of the history of the United States is the period from the discovery of the continent by Christopher Columbus in 1492 to the establishment of the first permanent settlements. This period is characterized by the exploration of the continent by Spanish, French, and English explorers, and the establishment of the first permanent settlements by the English in 1607.

The second part of the history of the United States is the period from the establishment of the first permanent settlements to the American Revolution in 1776. This period is characterized by the growth of the colonies, the struggle for independence from Britain, and the establishment of the United States as a new nation.

The third part of the history of the United States is the period from the American Revolution to the present. This period is characterized by the growth of the United States as a world power, the Civil War, the Reconstruction period, and the modern era of the United States.
